I*STATEMENT OF THE CASE*A. INDICTMENT

After a failed disposition in Criminal Case No. 07CR1749-LAB, a federal grand jury in the Southern District of California returned a one-count Indictment charging defendant Genaro Smith-Baltiher (“Defendant”) with being a deported alien found in the United States, in violation of Title 8, United States Code, Section 1326, on November 20, 2007. In the instant case, Defendant was arraigned on the Indictment on December 3, 2007, and entered a plea of not guilty.

B. TRIAL STATUS

Trial is scheduled for Tuesday, January 8, 2008, at 9:00 a.m., before the Honorable Larry A. Burns. The United States anticipates that its case-in-chief will last one day.

C. STATUS OF COUNSEL

Defendant is represented by Joseph M. McMullen, Esq., Federal Defenders of San Diego, Inc.

D. CUSTODY STATUS

Defendant is in custody.

E. INTERPRETER

The United States does not need an interpreter for any of its witnesses. The United States anticipates that Defendant may need an interpreter.

F. JURY WAIVER

Defendant has not waived trial by jury.

G. PRETRIAL MOTIONS

On December 3, 2007, the date of arraignment in the instant case, Defendant filed a motions to: (1) compel discovery, (2) dismiss the indictment due to misinstruction of the grand jury, and (3) grant leave to file further motions. At a motion hearing on December 3, 2007, in Criminal Case No. 07CR1749-LAB, the Court set a motion in limine hearing date of January 7, 2008, and set the case for trial on January 8, 2008, in the instant case. The Court ordered that any additional substantive motions, including any motion under 8 U.S.C. § 1326(d), and any motions in limine be filed in the normal course so that they may be heard on January 7, 2008.

1 H. STIPULATIONS

2 The Government and Defendant have not entered into any stipulations.

3 I. DISCOVERY

4 The United States has complied with its discovery obligations. Defendant has not provided
5 any reciprocal discovery.

6 II

7 STATEMENT OF THE FACTS

8 A. THE INSTANT OFFENSE

9 On June 4, 2007, San Diego police officers arrested Defendant for disorderly conduct, being
10 drunk in public, and booked him into the Central Detention Facility in San Diego, California. On June 11 5, 2007, Immigration Enforcement Agent Meraz encountered Defendant at the Detention Facility and 12 conducted a field interview. During this interview, Agent Meraz determined that Defendant was a 13 citizen and national of Mexico with no legal right to enter or remain in the United States.
14 Subsequently, an Immigration detainer was placed on Defendant.

15 On June 6, 2007, at approximately 6:00 a.m., Defendant was referred to the custody of United
16 States Immigration and Customs Enforcement. At this time, Deportation Officer Balangue performed
17 records checks and confirmed Defendant's identity, that he is a citizen and national of Mexico, that 18 he had been previously deported from the United States on numerous occasions, and that he had not 19 applied for permission to re-enter the United States. Subsequently, Defendant was advised of his 20 Miranda rights and he elected to invoke his right to counsel.

21 B. DEFENDANT'S IMMIGRATION HISTORY

22 Defendant is a citizen of Mexico. Defendant has been removed from the United States to 23 Mexico on five occasions: (1) January 24, 1992, pursuant to an order of an immigration judge
24 following a deportation hearing; (2) August 19, 1993, pursuant to an administrative order reinstating
25 his 1992 order of removal; (3) June 13, 1995, pursuant to an administrative order reinstating his 1992
26 order of removal; (4) August 25, 1999, pursuant to an administrative order reinstating his 1992 order
27 of removal; and (5) most recently, on July 31, 2006, pursuant to an order of an immigration judge
28 following a deportation hearing.

1 C. DEFENDANT'S CRIMINAL HISTORY

2 Defendant has an extensive criminal and immigration history. While Defendant's criminal
3 behavior began in 1982, the United States will only refer to felonies in the last ten years. Defendant
4 was convicted on October 24, 1995 of selling a controlled substance, cocaine, and received four years
5 in jail. On February 10, 1998, Defendant was convicted of illegal reentry in violation of 8 U.S.C. §
6 1326 (Criminal Case No. 98CR0165-T) for which he received 24 months in custody. Next, on 7 November 4, 1999, Defendant was convicted of illegal entry in violation of 8 U.S.C. § 1325 (Criminal
8 Case No. 99CR3068-GT) for which he received 30 months in custody. He most recently was 9 convicted of false claim to United States citizenship in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 911 (Criminal Case
10 No. 06CR0326-BTM) and was sentenced to 36 months in custody and one year supervised release to 11 run concurrent to the sentence in Criminal Case No. 99CR3068-GT.

13 PERTINENT LAW

14 A. 8 U.S.C. § 1326 - DEPORTED ALIEN FOUND IN THE UNITED STATES

15 The United States must prove beyond a reasonable doubt that:

- 16 1. Defendant was deported from the United States;
- 17 2. After deportation, Defendant voluntarily entered the United States;
- 18 3. When Defendant entered he knew he was entering the United States or after 19 Defendant entered the United States he knew that he was in the United States and knowingly remained;
- 20 4. Defendant was found in the United States without having obtained the consent
21 of the Attorney General or the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security to reapply for admission into the United States; and
- 22 5. Defendant was an alien at the time of his entry into the United States.
